

tennessee legislature, avery green

Advanced Book Search

History & families, Christian County, Missouri By Turner Publishing Company

Contents ▾

Page 239

Link

Feedback

1

★★★★★

0 Reviews

Write reviewAbout this book

every green, michael

Go

 In My Library: Change ▾

Get this book

Turner Publishing CompanyAmazon.comBarnes&Noble.comResult 1 of 2 in this book for every green, michael - Previous Next - View allClear search ing culture.

 oris "Porter" (1905-1992) (fourth G.) ute between Searcy and Brinkley, for 1th Gray Motor Coaches. He married in from El Paso, AR (1909-1984) daugh-John Thomas Boardman (1877-1936) and arms (1882-1974). Howel Mae's brother Burns, mayor of North Little Rock two 20s. Burns Park was named in his honor.
 Edith had three children: Charles, Nita and Phillip.

40 years. The oldest son, age 12, was the first to Theodorick Green (1799) married Mary Hassler in 1821. In 1857 they moved from Tennessee to Marion County, AR, by wagon and there spent the rest of his life until he was killed on the river near Lead Hill. According the book, Turner Tales, Michael Green said his father was killed in the Horseshoe Bend area of White River during the war. He was shot by a bushwhacker while trying to retrieve corn for the settlers, which was hidden in a cave. His body was put back in his canoe and sent down the river where it was later found. Theodorick is buried above the mouth of Elbow Creek on what was the old Tom Mory place.
 Theodorick and Amy had 13 children. They were:
 Jonathan, James, John (Jehu), John L., Almeda, Theodorick B., Letha, Amanda, Avery, Milly, Michael, family to Boone County, AR, in 191 from the Fanchers near Osage one sea to east of Bellefonte near the mouth o After a few years in Corpus Christi, returned to central Arkansas. E.E. met a Fifth Sunday meeting at Pickle's Conway.

In 1930 E.E., with wife Myrtle an moved from south Arkansas to Harris came pastor of the First Baptist Chur there for 21 years. The three childre Etheridge, E. Elmer, Jr.; and Lewis (, graduated from Harrison High Scho Juhel Early Etheridge from Conway.
 Harrison for a number of years and th